

GET READY FOR NEXT SEMESTER WITH ERPsim

Here at ERPsim Lab we are constantly looking for ways to improve your teaching experience and the services we provide to faculty and students. With the recent overhaul of the Learning Portal, a rework of our documentation and material provided to students, as well as ongoing improvements being made to our website, there are plenty of new things in store for you to check out!

A SINGLE PAYMENT OF 40 $CAN* GRANTS STUDENTS:

- Access to both our Manufacturing and Distribution Games and, as of August 1st 2011, our all new Logistics Game.
- Full access to the Learning Portal and all the material found therein; including updated videos, slides, manuals, and more!
- A revised version of the ERP Simulation Game: Participant's Guide (Edition 2011-2012).
- Readings on Enterprise Resource Planning is a textbook, developed in collaboration with over 20 faculty members from the SAP University Alliance, which delves further into ERP and its real life applications. The preliminary version will be available as of August 2011.

AND FOR FACULTY MEMBERS:

- Be sure to check out our expanded section for instructors, containing everything you need to maximize your use of ERPsim as the ultimate solution in ERP education.
- Changing the Way we Teach and Learn ERP Systems by Léger, Robert and Babin provides the teaching notes and guidelines for Instructors using ERPsim. A preliminary version of which is now available on the ERPsim Learning Portal. The final version will be available as of August 1st.
- First class technical support provided to you by our own students and staff.
- For those of you who wish to learn more about our new Logistics Game, a webinar on August 3rd from 12h00 to 15h00 Eastern will be held to provide faculty with all the details.

As always, please note that the authors of ERPsim have renounced their academic copyrights in favour of the ERPsim Lab. The mission of this lab is to ensure the continued development and support of this simulation software. The proceeds from the sale of the book are used to fund the faculty support web site, and the team behind it.

Thanks for using ERPsim and have a great summer!
